WELCOME

TO THE NORFOLK MOTORHOME & CAMPERVAN SHOW

WE HAVE lots going on here in Norwich this weekend so whether you're staying on site to be a part of our summer party or you're visiting for a day of shopping within the exhibition area, please do familiarize yourself with what's happening and where.

We're thrilled to be hosting nearly 40 dealers from across the country, so you'll find an exceptional choice of new and used motorhomes and campervans for sale, in addition to thousands of products from our accessory traders. Talk to them about what you're looking for, I know they will do their very best to help.

Speaking of help, we've added the advice centre to this show for the first time, our line-up of guest speakers have created a series of free talks to offer advice, top tips and inspiration on a variety of topics, see page 10 for more details.

If you're here with younger guests this weekend (or you're young at heart!) we've got a huge choice of family activities on offer, as well as a selection of coach trips for you to choose from if you'd like to explore the local area whilst you're staying with us. See pages 14-15 for more info.

We have live entertainment taking place in both the main building and the big top throughout the weekend (full line up p4-6), if you're an 80s fan like me, I know the WildBoys set on Saturday evening will be a huge highlight! If you haven't got a ticket yet, head to the information office.

If you require assistance while on-site, visit the information office where we will be happy to help.

Sally Dodds

Head of Events, Warners Shows
Part of the Out and About Live family

There's added excitement in the air, as this show is the first at which we have created an inviting Out & About Live lounge just for you. Everyone is welcome to pop over, relax and discover more about Out & About Live.

Most of you, I'm sure, know the outandaboutlive.co.uk website as it is the online home of all the Warners shows and festivals. But there's loads more on the website – if you're after the latest vanlife tips, advice and news, as well as hundreds of expert motorhome and campervan reviews, they are all there waiting for you, as are over 1,000 new and used motorhomes and campervans for sale, an all-new Campsite Finder service, an online accessories store and even the country's most comprehensive motorhome and campervan buyers' guides.

But Out & About Live is so much more than a website, as it is also home to a variety of magazines just for you, including MMM, which has been Britain's best-selling motorhome magazine for every one of the last 55 years!

But instead of reading about Out & About Live, why not pop over, meet the team and discover why so many people like you love OAL so much?

START ART

INSPIRING BEGINNERS TO EXPLORE THE WONDERFUL WORLD OF ART AS A HOBBY

This weekend, we've added in some free watercolour painting demonstrations as we know it's something a lot of you would love to pursue whilst enjoying your travels.

IF YOU'VE ever considered trying painting or drawing, now's your chance to learn more! We're hosting free talks to help you start your artistic journey with expert guidance and essential tips to pick up that paintbrush with confidence.

Talks are taking place in the advice centre, but please do also come along and chat to our friendly demonstrators of the Start Art tent too! Located in the activity hub, we hope you'll be inspired as you watch them in action and ask as many questions as you wish.

KEITH NASH | Keith is a self-taught contemporary landscape watercolour artist based in North Norfolk. Passionate about the region's vast skies and wildlife, he works with a limited palette to create atmospheric, impressionistic paintings. His signature elements include dramatic skies, creative lighting, and water reflections. Birds, boats, and beaches often feature in his work, which is showcased in galleries across Norfolk and Suffolk, including John Lewis and Jarrolds. Represented in the UK and USA, Keith also leads workshops, simplifying watercolour techniques. With an engineering background, he embraces experimentation, believing great art comes from feeling rather than strict replication.

TOM CRINGLE | Tom Cringle is a Norfolk-born artist and art teacher who has been exhibiting and selling his work for nearly 30 years. He works on large canvases to capture the dramatic beauty of East Anglia's vast skies and sweeping beaches. His work also explores landscapes, figures, and cityscapes, with paintings sold as far as Australia.

Tom teaches in forensic and psychiatric care, promoting art for well-being. He is the Arts and Culture Head Steward at the Royal Norfolk Show and founder of 'Creative Freedom,' a non-profit supporting art in mental health. His philosophy: art is for everyone—no judgment, just creativity.
